Before His Honour Me. T. Sercomee Smith ACTING PUISHE JUDGE! THE THEATEICAL CASE.

The action brought by Mr. Frank Brett long all the Treaty Powers will be represented malidious arrest on let last, dime on for end their appleaus engaged in the education and hearing. Mr. E. C. Ellis (from Mr V H. Deacon's office) represented the plaintiff, and Mr. H. L. Dennys appeared for the defendant. Mr. Dennys said that there were two suits the present one, No. 493, and another, No. 494. The question of the legality of the arrest would > be more or less affected by what took place it sait 494, and he thought it would be much more satisfactory if that suit were disposed of first. Mr. Ellis objected, as suit 493 was first on the list, and suit 494 had absolutely nothing to do

> His Lordship decided to hear the suits their proper order, and the case then proceeded Mr. Ellis-This is a suit in which the plaintiff claims the sum of $1,000 damages occasioned by the malicious arrest of him on the 1st of the present month. circumstances, which I will shortly state to your Lordship, are as follows. The plaint if was to a certain extent, in rather an undefined position. business manager to the defendant with reference to this Dramatic Company. On the 29th April he collected from the shroff of the City Hall the sum of $400. That sum, I admit, in the usual course of affairs it would have been his duty to pay into the credit of the defendant in the Chartered Bank. He did not do so, and whether he was right or wrong I submit is not a matter we will have to go into now. But the the plaintiff in a sum considerably exceeding this sum of $400, and the plaintiff wished to retain it in order that he should have something to go upon if it was necessary for him to take any proceedings. Whether that was right or wrong I will not go into now. It is not necessary to the sait, and possibly he was not justified in doing it. His Lordskip, in giving fudgment, said - On the 29th April the plaintiff in this case received from the on pradore of the City Hall the som of $400. That was in the morning. Later on in the day, defendant met him, and asked him where the money was, and whether he had paid it into the bank. Plaintiff said he had done so. well knowing he had not done so. Defendant relying on the word of the plaintiff, took no steps that day to verify the trill or otherwise of plaintiff's statement. The next morning went to the bank and discovered that the money had not been paid in. Thereupon he wrote to his solicitor and instructed him to demund from the plaintiff this sum of $400 After that, according to defendant's version, he say plaintiff and seked him about the money, and plaintiff said he was going to keep it and pay his passage home as he was going away.
